Unfortunately, purchasing or renting textbooks can be an expense some students have difficulty affording while in school. BookDeal With nearly 20 years in the book industry under its belt, BookDeal offers a transparent, easy and hassle-free process for selling old textbooks. Ziffit As your kids outgrow their books, you can trade them in for cash through Ziffit. The minimum buyback is $15. You need to set up a profile on Etsy.com to start selling, and it's important to make your listing as detailed as possible to attract the right buyers. The platform also provides various tools to make the selling process more manageable. Bookscounter.com Bookscounter streamlines your selling process by helping you find the best prices. AbeBooks is now working with Textbookrush.com to offer users a book-buyback service. Here are the top sites you can make use of. Additionally, if you don't sell any books, you don't have to pay the monthly fee. While you may not find a short summary of Hamlet, you will see religious book summaries, book summaries for health-related topics, or topics for business-related books.Students Searching for Book SummariesStudents are constantly on the lookout for book summaries for research purposes, as well as for books they need to read for classes. The platform allows you to compare book prices from over 35 websites that trade books. AbeBooks A great place to start is AbeBooks, a massive online used book marketplace. It's part of a vast network of reputable buyback vendors, which allows you to get multiple quotes for your book from one platform. In addition, through the BookDeal website, you can input the book's ISBN and wait for the vendors to respond. Amazon then makes you an offer for the book. Selling Vintage or Out-of-Print Books Are you a vintage enthusiast who's thinking about trading in some of your collection? To get a better idea of your options, check out some of the best places to sell your books online, along with a few tips on how to get the most money for them. The shipping is also trackable, so you'll know when the book is delivered to the company's offices. But not all of them are ideal for every type of book you might be interested in selling. If that's not enough, some of these book apps and subscription services also offer links to videos, reports and TED talks for the books, as well. Biblio offers low commissions and fees and can help you reach a broad audience of buyers who are interested in specialty titles. These book summary sites contain information about the author, release date, characters, plot, and then move on to the summaries, like a short summary of Othello, for example. These "YouTubers" select a book, present information about it, provide insights, highlight reviews about it, and summarize its plot. For example, they may need a summary of Roberts rules or a simple summary of Macbeth to help them write a research paper, and a book summary website will help them achieve that goal. Then, when the company receives your package, you'll receive Amazon credits as payment. Follow these guidelines to learn where to find book summaries online.Websites and BlogsMany websites and blogs offer summaries of chapters in books for free to their readers. If you have old textbooks lining your shelves, selling them not only means revenue for you — it also goes a long way in helping students acquire the course materials they need. Once you accept it, you receive a shipping label from the company. Decluttr Decluttr.com offers a straightforward process to sell your kids' old books — you don't even need to sign up for anything. According to The Washington Post, 65% of students skip or delay buying or renting textbooks because the reading material is so expensive. This free classifieds site is full of comic fans, and you can get multiple offers on your comics, especially if they're in mint condition. Photo Courtesy: Daniel Balakov/iStock Selling Children's Books If your little readers are growing up, you can declutter your home and turn your children's old books into cash through these online websites. With a seller account, you'll list all your books and build different product pages for every book. Alternatively, it can organize a courier service to pick them up. If you've hesitated in the past to sell online because of the complicated listing process, it helps to know that things are much easier now — and there are buyers out there interested in every title you can imagine. To sweeten the deal even more, there are many different websites where you can sell your old books. Expect to receive check payments within 10 business days. Selling Textbooks New textbooks for students cost a fortune. All you need to do is use Decluttr's valuation engine or the free iOS or Android app to get an instant price for your book. Once you accept an offer, you ship the books for free to their destination. Some present notes, reflections, and reviews that their readers can comment on, discuss, or reflect on. This way, you don't have to worry about your books being too heavy to haul; Ziffit finds the right courier service and has them picked up from your door. It's a wise idea to give your titles a higher chance of selling by listing them on the right marketplace. CampusBooks.com also offers free shipping with payment processing through checks, cash, store-credit payments and PayPal. If that's not enough, some of these book apps and subscription services also provide links to videos, reports and TED talks for the books, as well.YouTube Channels Offering Book SummariesIf you would rather not read a summary of books, there are many YouTube channels offering book summaries online. The platform provides antique booksellers with low seller fees and fraud protection. All you need to do is enter your books' ISBNs and view the available offers for the books. Therefore, a wide variety of sites are available containing them. Keep in mind that, whenever you're selling books online, it's important to clearly outline your book's quality, condition and edition to avoid needing to make refunds to the vendors. Campus Books Similar to the previous sites, you can sell your textbooks on CampusBooks.com by simply inputting your ISBN. Alibris Gather your rare book collection and trade the titles for cash using Alibris.com. Comic Book Classifieds If you have any old comics or graphic novels you no longer want, Comic Book Classifieds may be the best avenue for selling. Payment processing is relatively fast through check or PayPal. With the trade-in program, you submit your book's ISBN and fill out a questionnaire on your book's condition. If you opt for PayPal, you can receive your pay a day after processing your shipment. Biblio Biblio offers you the opportunity to trade your out-of-print or vintage copies internationally. For example, your item description should include the author, publishing date and edition. MORE FROM ASKMONEY.COM Photo Courtesy: pablohart/iStock Selling Everyday and Newer Titles Whether you have a collection of paperback bestsellers or you prefer to read mostly newer titles, these sites can help you sell them. For example, you can upload photos of the book and use the website's sales data to attract more customers. Because everyone is pressed for time, the need to look up the summary of this book or that one is sometimes a priority. Thanks to the website's Fast Next Day payment, you can receive your earnings a day after they receive your books. Amazon On Amazon, you have a few options for selling everyday books. Below are a few websites you can use to sell your textbooks online. Instead of letting them collect dust, why not sell them online? Etsy Etsy is an ideal place to sell your antique books. The only difference is that the website links you to different buyback sites with multiple offers for your textbook. All you need is to type in your book's ISBN, and you'll have access to multiple price options. Ziffit gives you the option to drop the books at a Collect+ store. Some of these channels follow a specific niche topic while others are about books in general.Research or Special Interest Book Summary WebsitesFor those who need a summary of a book that covers a research or special interest topic, there are dozens of book summary websites focusing specifically on this. The purpose of these websites and blogs is to present an informal setting for people to enjoy books without feeling the pressure of making a purchase. Some of these services provide audio, PDF, and infographics of the books. Although it's known more for being an artist marketplace, many collectors flock to this website in search of unique antique items. The platform provides commission-free sales for dealer-dealer trading as well. Submit the ISBNs and get an instant quote through the website or free app, or scan the books using the app and get your quote in minutes instead of waiting during the bidding process. BookDeal.com allows you to ship your book for free and get paid through Zelle, Venmo or PayPal. Some of the bloggers and website owners also provide video and audio summaries, as well.Subscription Services and Book AppsIt's possible to find chapter summaries of books available through subscription services, as well as book apps.
